

AYURVEDIC QUALITIES OF RELATIONSHIP

बोधोत्पत्ति
HEALING CENTER

2040 E. Maple Ave, Flint, MI 48507 | Phone : (810) 620-1000

Astanga Hridaya Sutrasthan

Qualities of Physician:

दः तीथातशााथ टकमा शुचभषक

1. Alert, disciplined; professional skills (Daksha)
2. Detailed knowledge of professional writings per a teacher (Shastra)
3. Having practical experience (Drushtakarma)
4. Cleanliness; purity and clarity of mind, body and action (Shuchi)

Qualities of patient:

आयो रोगी भषवयो ापकः सवानप

1. Sufficient provision for treatment (money, shelter, food, etc.) (Adya)
2. 100 % trust in the Ayurvedic physician (Bhishagvashya)
3. Good memory and ability to communicate (Jnapaka)
4. Having good strength to tolerate protocol, imbalances; mental endurance, will to heal, fearlessness. (Satvavaan)

33. Patient worth rejection:

येजेदात भषभू पैवटं तेषां वषं वषहनोपकरणं यमवधेयं गतायु षचडं शोकातुरं भीं कृतनं वैयमाननम

The physician should reject the patient, who is:

- hated by physician and the king and who hates them; who hates himself (dejected in life),
- not having the equipment and other facilities required for treatment,
- busy with other activities, not having the required attention; leisure towards the treatment,
- disobedient (to the physician),
- life is coming to an end,
- of evil mind (violent, destructive),
- afflicted with great grief,
- full of fear,
- ungrateful and who thinks himself to be a physician (in respect of deciding medicines, therapies, food, activities etc.).